

Maria Theresa P. Celis

329 South Heatherstone Street
Orange, CA 92869 United States

(951) 265-2453
celismt@yahoo.com

Objective

I constantly aim to be an innovative and motivating role model for students so that they may value their education and become enriched individuals who endeavor to be successful in their future.

Education

California State University, Long Beach – Masters in Education, Graduate May 2015
- M.Ed. Program: Educational Technology and Media Leadership

California State University, Long Beach – Single Subject Teaching Credential, Issued April 2013
- Subject concentration: Social Sciences

University of California, Berkeley – B.A. Sociology, Graduate May 2011

Related Work Experience

Orange Unified School District
Substitute Teacher – August 2013 - Present

Santa Ana Unified School District
Substitute Teacher – November 2012 - Present

Seegerstrom Fundamental High School, SAUSD
Student Teacher, World History; U.S. History – August 2012 – January 2013

Excelsius Academy
7th Grade Math, English Summer Instructor – June 2012 – August 2012

Westminster School District
Substitute Teacher – September 2011 – May 2012

California Student Opportunity and Access Program (Cal-SOAP)
Academic Coach for Long Beach Job Corps – October 2011 - May 2012

Young Women's Christian Association, Berkeley-Oakland
Administrative Assistant – February 2010 – May 2011
- Program Coordinator and Outreach Director, Young Women and Money 2010
- Program Assistant, English In Action 2011

Related Volunteer Experience

BLAST, Better Learning for All Students Today
Volunteer: In-class high school tutor – February 2012 – December 2012

Pilipino Academic Student Services Youth Mentorship Program, Berkeley-San Francisco
After-school Youth Mentor – August 2007 – December 2009

Credential

California Preliminary Single Subject Teaching Credential, Social Sciences; ELA (ELA1) embedded